FAST RUN TO MARBLEHBAD.

NEW YORK Y. C. AND EASTERN Y. C. FLEETS UNITE.

Brilliant Spectacle in the Harbor, Where Many Fine Vessels Are at Anchor
-Final Run of the Squadron Made in Ideal Weather-Regatta To-day.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Aug. 18.—The large fleet of the New York Yacht Club is at anchor to-night in Marbiehead harbor. The Colonia, Commodore Bourne's flagship, steamed into the harbor this afternoon, anchored and saluted the flag of the Eastern Yacht Club. Commodore Lawrence Minot made an official call on Commodore Bourne which the visiting commodore returned later in the day. On to Marblehead was the order given at Vineyard Haven this morning, and preparations were made at sunrise. The Invader and Corona were among the first to go. Mr. Hainey was anxious to get to Marblehead because the sail of the Invader needed some trimming, and sailmakers were ordered to be ready at Marblehead to get to work as soon at the yacht got in.

The Colona got under way at 7 o'clock and other steamers followed. At 8 o'clock the only vessels left at Vineyard Haven were the Vigilant, Planet, Vencedor, Lasca, Pantooset and Oneida. The wind then was light from the east-northeast and the tide was running east so that the boats had a fair tide and head wind. The Sun's tug left shortly after 8 o'clock and gradually began to overhaul the leaders. Just before reaching Cross Rip Lightship the club's tug H. Chamberlain took the Elmina, Katrina and Muriel in tow. This was at 9:30 o'clock, and a little later she picked up the sloop and Muriel in tow. This was at 9:30 o clock, and a little later she picked up the sloop poris. These boats are to race in the regatta to-morrow and their owners were anxious to get into port as early as possible.

A. S. Bigelow's fine steamer Pantooset, started after most of the yachts had left the Haven, and she made a fast trip over the shoals, passing Handerchief Lightship at 10:30 o'clock. The Crusader II. and Onward were passed between Handkerchief and Pollock lip lightships, and half a mile further ahead was the schooner Agatha.

At 12:15 o'clock the Caclque, Normona and yenona were off the Twin Lights at Chatham. The three lights at Nauset were passed at 1:15 and Highland Light was abeam at 2:30. At that time the wind had shifted to the southeast. It was very light, but the boats were able to set spinnakers and made fairly good progress. The Witoco was passed at 2:50. Near her was the sloop Mira and some distance ahead the schooner Niagara.

It was an ideal day for the run around Cape Cod. The sea was smooth, save for the ocean roll coming in from the eastward. There was not a cloud in the sky, but the rays of the sun were tempered by the light easterly airs.

There was onlite a large fleet in Marble-

There was not a cloud in the sky, but the rays of the sun were tempered by the light easterly airs.

There was quite a large fleet in Marblehead Harbor this evening, and the number of large vessels that had come around the cape was very noticeable. Among those were Commodore Bourne's Colonia, Vice-Commodore Henry Walter's Narada, Howard Gould's Niagara, Lloyd Phoenix's Intrepid, G. G. Haven's Jr.'s Vergemere, C. K. G. Billings's Surf. Henry T. Sloane's Idler, The Invader Chanticleer, Commodore Lawrence Minot's Hope, Felicia, Emblanch, Pantooset, E. C. Benedict's Oneida and many others. These big boats, with the small ones belonging to the Eastern, Corinthian and Boston clubs, crowd the harbor very much.

The arrival of the New York Yacht Club fleet is a big event here, and this evening crowds of excursionists have been heading toward Marblehead from Salem, Lynn and other nearby towns. They watched the yachts arrive and owners of launches and small boats did a thriving business taking many for a trip around the fleet. In the evening the big yachts illuminated and the scene was a brilliant one.

To-morrow morning there will be a regatta, given by the Eastern, Yacht Club, and the visiting yachtsmen have been invited to compete with the local boats. The regatta promises to be one of the most interesting of the season. In the evening there will be freworks and illumination of the fleet and the Eastern club will give a reception to the New York Yacht Club squadron will disband, but many of the yachts will continue on with the ocean are yer successful one. The fleet was large and representative, and it has been many years since as fine a lot of racing boats crossed the starting line. There has been some grumbling, but chiefly because of the rew rule. This rule is still somewhat of an experiment, but it has developed good wholesome types of boats. One of these is the Doris, owned by S. Reed Anthony. She is fast in strong winds, but cannot do as well as the Humma and Shark when the airs are light. It is the opinion of m 30 FOOTERS IN CLOSE RACE. m's Neels II. Wins Third Ev the Newport Series.

NEWPORT, Aug. 18 .- The third race between the New York 30 footers to-day for cups offered by the Newport Yacht Racing Association resulted in a win for G. Pynchon's Neola II., with L. Delano's Oriole a close Neola II., with L. Delano's Oriole a close second. There were twelve starters in today's race, which was sailed in a good whole sil breeze, but owing to a shift of the wind after the start there was no wirdward work. The start, made at 3:10 o'clock, was one of the prettiest ever seen in these waters, and the boats were so close that three, the Banzai, Nautilus ard Atair, were forced over the lire, but having' room to maneuver. The Oriole got the start, but in the broad reach to the first mark the Neola II. took the lead, which she held to the firish. On the reach home the yachts were bothered by a tow of barges, charging the position of the boats somewhat. The summary:

AMERICANS KEEP CANADA CUP. Iroquois Defeats Temeraire in Deciding Race of the Series.

CHESTER, Aug. 18 .- Iroquois to-day won the deciding race of the series for the Canada cup, defeating the Canadian yacht Temeraire by 2 minutes 15 seconds. The race was the est of the series, and though Iroquois had the best of the argument for most of the distance of eighteen miles, the finish would have been a great deal closer had not Temeraire broken her spinnaker pole in jibing around one of the marks.

The wind was fairly steady throughout the day, blowing most of the time from eight to ten miles an hour, with very little sea. Temeraire got the better start, leaving Iroquois 100 yards astern during the first five minutes of the race, but both skippers mistook the position of the first mark, owing to a shift in the wind, and salled a mile or more out of the course. It was an even break, though, with no advantage to either. Iroquois won on account of her ability to point higher than Temeraire in the light weathr.

The only thing that saved the Canada cup for the Rochester Yacht Club, and it has just been successfully defended for the first time, was the fact that heavy weather prevailed during only two days of the racing. To-merrow the consolation race is '2 be saile' between the Rochester, Ree Lox II. Zoraya and Nanlwa, yachts built for the trial races.

RACE FOR BELLOWS CUP.

More Trouble Finishes First, but Ogeemah May Win on Time Allowance.

The second face of the Bellows challenge cup match for Gravesend Bay boats in class A was sailed yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club. Though the defending yacht, More Trouble, owned by W. H. Childs of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club, was the first to finish, it was generally conceded that Alfred Mackay's Ogeemah, representing the New York Canoe Club, would fir ally be given the race on corrected time. Should this prove to be true the New York Canoe Club would then become the custodian of the coveted trophy, as the Ogeemah won the first leg on July 27. OPPONENTS OF THE MORTGAGE TAX ORGANIZE.

Permanent Headquarters Secured for the Allied Real Estate Interests in the Broad-Exchange Building—An Old Brooklyn Farm Brings $500,000.

Permanent headquarters of the allied Real Estate Interests of the State of New York, recently incorporated at Albany, were opened yesterday on the fifteenth floor of the Broad-Exchange Building, 25 Broad street. In a short time branches will he established in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester and the larger towns of the State for the enrolment of realty owners, brokers and others. A membership of several thousands is promised by the end of the year. The association is non-partisan, and is an outcome of the opposition which developed last winter to the mortgage tax law.

According to Secretary Allan Robinson, the objects of the organization include "the advocacy of just and equitable laws pertaining to real estate and unceasing opposition to laws detrimental to property owners. By collecting and diffusing accurate information the association will make possible concerted action on all matters affecting property holders.

"In a few days our permanent organization will be completed by the election of a president and a board of directors. The latter will consist of eighteen members, half of whom will be chosen from Greater New York and half from the interior towns. This division, it is hoped, will result in a solidarity of interests as between New York and the smaller cities, which will add greatly to the efficiency of the association. "There will also be a large advisory committee, the membership of which will be similarly apportioned. Advantage will be taken of the expert knowledge possessed by members of this committee, which will pass upon important questions affecting the various interests comprised in the organization. Members of the board and of the advisory committee will direct the enrolment in their several localities, so that this work may be completed with as little delay as possible."

B. Aymar Sands has been elected treasurer of the association. It is believed that either Edward Van Ingen or Alfred E. Marling will be chosen for the presidency. Among the members of the general committee of the temporary organization are Edmund L. Baylies, C. T. Barney, presipany; Frank Baylies, William H. Chesebrough, president of the Century Realty Company; A. R. Conklin, president of the Realty League; Robert W. de Forest, Louis L. Delafield, Robert E. Dowling, Frederick De P. Forster, E. R. L. Gould, Charles R. Henderson, Jabish Holmes, Jr.; Henry E. Howland, J. Edgar Leaycraft, Edgar J. Levey, Bernhard Mayer, Allen L. Mordecai, president of the Realty Mortgage Company; Walter G. Oakman, Douglass Robinson, Noah C. Rogers, treasurer of the Union Mortgage and Realty Company; E. W. Coggeshall, president of the Lawyers'
Title Insurance Company and Clarence H.
Kelsey, president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company.
